Be a Partner in Prayer. You are invited to join parents, grandparents, and friends of St. Paul's Lutheran School each Monday when school is in session from 8 - 8:15 am in the Parish Office. Each week, in addition to praying for the general needs of the school, we will pray for students by name—one class each week—as well as any special prayer requests. Pastor Michael will lead this weekly time for prayer. A guide will be provided. Come any Monday you are able. Participants are not required to pray aloud.

CONCORDIA, MO

P Pastor C Congregation/All
*† All may make the sign of the cross to remember their baptism.

Opening Hymn - Lutheran Service Book # 345

“Hark! A Thrilling Voice Is Sounding”

Invocation

P In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

Confession of Sins and Forgiveness

P Confessing our failure to stay ready for Christ's return in power and glory; the crookedness of our thoughts, words, and actions; that we are helpless to rescue ourselves from our sinful condition; and relying on the all-sufficient grace of Jesus, we pray:
C Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy, Lord, have mercy. Amen.
P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Opening Sentences Psalm 25:1-5

P To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
O my God, in you I trust;
C let me not be put to shame;
let not my enemies exult over me.
P Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame;
C they shall be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.
P Make me to know your ways, O Lord;
C teach me your paths.
P Lead me in your truth and teach me,
C for you are the God of my salvation;
for you I wait all the day long.

Prayer of the Day

Tune: PUER NOBIS ("On Jordan's Bank the Baptist's Cry")

C (sung) Stir up Your pow'r, O Lord, and come,
And lead us to our heav'nly home.
From sin's dread dangers, by Your might
Protect us, Lord, both day and night.

Verse of the Month

Psalm 98:1a

C "Oh sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things!"

Old Testament Lesson

Proverbs 8:12-31

Wisdom is personified, and she tells how she has existed before the creation of the world.

¹²"I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion. ¹³The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. ¹⁴I have counsel and sound wisdom; I have insight; I have strength. ¹⁵By me kings reign, and rulers decree what is just; ¹⁶by me princes rule, and nobles, all who govern justly. ¹⁷I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me. ¹⁸Riches and honor are with me, enduring wealth and righteousness. ¹⁹My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold, and my yield than choice silver. ²⁰I walk in the way of righteousness, in the paths of justice, ²¹granting an inheritance to those who love me, and filling their treasuries. ²²"The Lord possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. ²³Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. ²⁴When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. ²⁵Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth, ²⁶before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. ²⁷When he established the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, ²⁸when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, ²⁹when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, ³⁰then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, ³¹rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle Lesson

1 Thessalonians 3:9-13

Saint Paul prays that the people's hearts may overflow with perfect love in preparation for the return of Jesus Christ.

⁹What thanksgiving can we return to God for you, for all the joy that we feel for your sake before our God, ¹⁰as we pray most earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith? ¹¹Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, ¹²and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, ¹³so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. ⁹For what thanksgiving can we return to God for you, for all the joy that we feel for your

Bible Class Today - December 2

Adult Bible Study - "The Christmas Story: From Four Perspectives." This study attempts to explore how each Gospel in the Bible (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John) give us a different perspective--a different lens--through which to see the Christmas story, the birth and beginnings of Jesus Christ. Each Gospel's emphasis is different, and by studying them both individually and side by side, we catch deeper glimpses into this marvelous event, that God the Father would send His Son to take on human flesh, that God would become a baby who would grow into a man who would die our death and then be raised for our everlasting life. Today's class will meet in the church sanctuary.

High School Sunday School - will meet in the Youth room and we will be doing an Advent series as we prepare for Christmas. We will continue our Romans study in the new year. Hope you can join in the fun of studying God's Word.

Gospel Reading

Luke 21:25-36

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the twenty-first chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord. (sung)

Jesus tells His followers to prepare for His return.

²⁸When he had said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

²⁹When he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples,³⁰ saying, "Go into the village in front of you, where on entering you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat. Untie it and bring it here."³¹ If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" you shall say this: "The Lord has need of it."³² So those who were sent went away and found it just as he had told them.³³ And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"³⁴ And they said, "The Lord has need of it."³⁵ And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it.³⁶ And as he rode along, they spread their cloaks on the road.³⁷ As he was drawing near—already on the way down the Mount of Olives—the whole multitude of his disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen,³⁸ saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"³⁹ And some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."⁴⁰ He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ. (sung)

Antiphon

P O Wisdom, proceeding from the mouth of the Most High, pervading and permeating all creation, mightily ordering all things:

C Come and teach us the way of prudence.

Prayer of the Church

After each petition:

P ... Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

(The 10:30am service will conclude with the Lord’s Prayer, Benediction, and the closing hymn, Lutheran Service Book # 332 “Savior of the Nations, Come”.)

Service of the Sacrament

We believe that in the Lord’s Supper our Lord gives to us His true body and blood with the bread and the wine for the forgiveness of our sins. We recognize the charge that St. Paul offers in 1 Corinthians 11:27-28 that those who come to receive the Lord’s Supper ought to examine themselves so that they do not eat and drink in an unworthy manner. Therefore, out of concern for those who have not been instructed in the faith or who hold to a different confession, we ask that only members of Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod congregations receive the Sacrament. If you would like to learn more about what our congregation teaches, to inquire about becoming a member or have questions about our practice, please speak to one of the pastors. Adults and children who have not yet been baptized or instructed in the Christian faith are invited to come forward and receive a spoken blessing at the altar rail.

For those who have problems consuming alcohol, you are invited to receive diluted wine from the purple glasses in the center of the tray of individual cups. For those who have dietary restrictions, gluten free wafers are available upon request.

Preface

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

Teens Encounter Christ (TEC) is just around the corner---January 19-21, 2019. TEC is a weekend designed for older youth (juniors/seniors/college) at a time when they are making life decisions and allows them to encounter the presence of Christ in their lives and to commit themselves to a life with Him. From the showmetec.org website, “A TEC retreat weekend is intended to strengthen the faith of those who attend and to encourage them to exercise Christian leadership in their daily living. The TEC weekend leads participants from where they are when they arrive to a personal encounter with Jesus and the implications of that encounter for daily living.” We have two youth planning to attend. Please keep them in your prayers as they study and strengthen their faith. If you have questions about the weekend, please contact Angela Kollbaum.

Snow Removal Help If there is winter weather in the forecast the Trustees are always looking for a few more bodies to help. It is our goal to clean all of the property and to allow all scheduled events to proceed safely. We generally meet for cleanup Sunday mornings at 5:30am, for Mon-Saturday services we meet at 4pm. If it is a large snow overnight we will meet at 10:30am the following day. A little difficult to give exact times so if you are available to help and are questioning the time you can call the church office. But your help is much appreciated. Tools that are needed varies with the accumulation from shovels, leaf blowers and snow blowers. Bigger equipment is sometime needed as well.

Wednesday Womens Bible Study will not meet on Wednesday, December 5.

Family Footnotes

When I looked up the definition for the word preparation, this is what I found..."the action or process of making ready or being made ready for use or consideration." What kind of preparation is taking place in your household? Is it getting out the Christmas decorations? Baking cookies? Preparing end of the year reports? Filling out college applications? Getting ready for a birthday celebration? We all have our own things that we are preparing for. As we enter the season of Advent, let us keep our focus on one very important event to prepare for, the coming of our Savior. This preparation occurs in the heart. It is a "making ready" or "being made ready for use." Is your heart ready for Jesus to use? As we head into this Advent season, be intentional about carving out a slice of time to pray and be in the Word. Mark it on your calendar, set your phone alarm, place your Bible in your recliner or on your kitchen table. Whatever will jog your memory to keep Christ foremost, do it. The benefits are worth it. "Joy to the world the Lord is come, Let earth receive her King, Let every heart prepare Him room, And heaven and nature sing, And heaven and nature sing, And heaven, and heaven and nature sing." Dr. Michael Zeigler, “Reality Therapy”. The book of Ruth deals with unimportant people and unimportant matters, but deals with them in such a way as to show that God is active in ordinary lives-like yours and mine. Ruth's story became an important part of the story of Jesus. Listening to God's work in her life can rescue us from dead end delusions and bring us into what is most real-a Jesus-centered reality.
