Third Sunday of Easter

MAY 5, 2019
8:00 AM & 10:30AM
ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH
CONCORDIA, MO

P Pastor C Congregation/All

† All may make the sign of the cross to remember their baptism.

Opening Hymn 474 "Alleluia! Jesus Is Risen"

Invocation

- P In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
- C Amen.

Confession of Sins & Forgiveness with Romans 6:3-5

- P Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
- C We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.
- P Repentance is a return to our baptism and to the forgiveness of sins, rescue from death and the devil, and eternal salvation God offers there. Let us then confess our sins to God our Father.
- C Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
- P Since we have been united with Christ in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.
- C Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.
- P Jesus Christ died for us. He was buried, and He was raised on the third day. In Christ, there is forgiveness. Therefore, in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
- C Amen.

P Alleluia! Christ is risen!

C He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Hymn of Praise “This Is the Feast”

For text and tune, see page 155.

Refrain: (all sing) This is the feast of victory for our God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

C Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain,
Whose blood set us free to be people of God. Refrain ...

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength,
And honor, blessing and glory are His. Refrain ...

Sing with all the people of God,
And join in the hymn of all creation:
Blessing, honor, glory, and might
Be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen. Refrain ...

For the Lamb who was slain has begun His reign.
Alleluia. Refrain ...

Collect of the Day A prayer that “collects” the theme of the day.

P The Lord be with you.

C (sung) And also with you.

P O God, through the humiliation of Your Son You raised up the fallen world.
Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C (sung) Amen.

Verse of the Month Psalms 30:5

C [The Lord’s] anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime;
weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

First Lesson Acts 9:1–22

The Lord calls Saul, the persecutor of Christians, to be His missionary.

¹But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest ²and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³Now as he went on his way, he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. ⁴And falling to the ground he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?” ⁵And he said, “Who are you, Lord?” And he said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ⁶But rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to

Bible Class Today - May 5

Adult Bible Study - History in the Bible

Some of the greatest known stories and characters of the Bible have a much deeper significance than what you may have learned in regular Sunday School. This four week study will look again at significant accounts of David & Goliath, Ruth, Daniel & the Lions Den and finally, the role and significance of worship in Jewish life. This class meets in the gym and will be led by Clint Colwell.

High School Sunday School - will meet in the Youth room and will continue their book study on “Do Hard Things” this week. Hope you can join us.

Sunday School -

Preschool -4th Grade will meet in Ms. Loges's Room and disperse from there at 9:15 each Sunday. Grades 5-8 will meet in their classrooms at 9:15am Sunday. Parents may pick up their children at 10:15am in the following rooms:

YAP This week, please keep Vanessa Marsh, daughter of Dr. Jerrode Marsh in your prayers. Vanessa will be graduating this weekend from Concordia University in Seward, Nebraska with her degree in Communication Studies and Music. She will be living in Concordia with her mom until her wedding in August to Seth Rodewald. The couple plans to reside in Rolla while Seth completes his engineering degree. Both of them would love to live and work overseas, but they are open to wherever God leads them. Vanessa would appreciate prayers that she find meaningful work and an affordable apartment once they move to Rolla. Vanessa would appreciate notes of encouragement as she plans and patiently awaits the Lord's plan to unfold. "We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you" Colossians 1:3

do." ⁷The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. ⁸Saul rose from the ground, and although his eyes were opened, he saw nothing. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. ⁹And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. ¹⁰Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." ¹¹And the Lord said to him, "Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, ¹²and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." ¹³But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. ¹⁴And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name." ¹⁵But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. ¹⁶For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." ¹⁷So Ananias departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptized; ¹⁹and taking food, he was strengthened.

For some days he was with the disciples at Damascus. ²⁰And immediately he proclaimed Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God." ²¹And all who heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem of those who called upon this name? And has he not come here for this purpose, to bring them bound before the chief priests?" ²²But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Christ.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Anthem (10:30am) St. Paul's Elem. School Grade 6-8 Choir "Everywhere I Go"

Second Lesson Revelation 5:8-14

In eternity, the elders and angels sing to Jesus, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain!"

⁸And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, ¹⁰and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth." ¹¹Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, ¹²saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" ¹³And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”¹⁴ And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

C (sung) Alleluia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life. Alleluia, alleluia.

Holy Gospel John 21:1-14

During an appearance to His disciples after His resurrection, Jesus provides a miraculous catch of fish for His disciples.”

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twenty-first chapter.

C (sung) Glory to You, O Lord.

¹After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and he revealed himself in this way. ²Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. ³Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will go with you.” They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

⁴Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵Jesus said to them, “Children, do you have any fish?” They answered him, “No.” ⁶He said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish. ⁷That disciple whom Jesus loved therefore said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for he was stripped for work, and threw himself into the sea. ⁸The other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards off.

⁹When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire in place, with fish laid out on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.” ¹¹So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, 153 of them. And although there were so many, the net was not torn. ¹²Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” Now none of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. ¹⁴This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Family Footnotes

Today is a very special day for the 8th-grade confirmands. May we remember them in our prayers as they begin a new chapter of their lives and continue their faith walk with their Savior. May we also take time to reflect upon our own confirmations and baptisms, knowing that Jesus has claimed us as His own. May Jesus' words of promise continue to resonate in our hearts and minds as we face life's challenges. Our Lord and Savior is most certainly present in the day to day. Let us not forget that. One of my favorite verses comes from Isaiah 41:10, "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."

~Gina Martens, Family Life Director

Confession of Faith (8:00am) Martin Luther's explanation of the Second Article.

C I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

Offering and Rite of Fellowship

Please record your attendance on the friendship register in each pew and pass the register down the pew so all may record their attendance.

Rite of Confirmation (10:30am)

Prayer of the Church

After each petition:

- P Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.

The service continues with communion liturgy beginning with the Preface on p. 160 in the hymnal.

We believe that in the Lord's Supper our Lord gives to us His true body and blood with the bread and the wine for the forgiveness of our sins. We recognize the charge that St. Paul offers in 1 Corinthians 11:27-28 that those who come to receive the Lord's Supper ought to examine themselves so that they do not eat and drink in an unworthy manner. Therefore, out of concern for those who have not been instructed in the faith or who hold to a different confession, we ask that only members of Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod congregations receive the Sacrament. If you would like to learn more about what our congregation teaches, to inquire about becoming a member or have questions about our practice, please speak to one of the pastors. Adults and children who have not yet been baptized or instructed in the Christian faith are invited to come forward and receive a spoken blessing at the altar rail.

For those who have problems consuming alcohol, you are invited to receive diluted wine from the purple glasses in the center of the tray of individual cups. For those who have dietary restrictions, gluten free wafers are available upon request.

Sung during the distribution:

- Hymn 687 "Thine Forever, God of Love"
- Hymn 725 "Children of the Heavenly Father"
- Hymn 865 "Lord, Help Us Ever to Retain"
- Hymn 821 "Alleluia! Sing to Jesus"
- Hymn 633 "At the Lamb's High Feast We Sing"
(You may remain seated for verse 8.)

Following the distribution, all stand to sing "Thank the Lord" on p. 164 in the hymnal. The communion liturgy concludes with the Post-Communion Prayer on page 166.

Next Sunday's (5/12/19) Scripture Readings:

- First Reading - Acts 20:17-35
- Second Reading - Revelation 7:9-17; Gospel - John 10:22-30

The Confirmation Banner at the front of the nave was designed by the late Viola Mieser, longtime teacher in St. Paul's School. The interlocked circles represent the Holy Trinity, with the symbol enclosed for each. The Baptism symbol is within the heart and centered in God's love (confirmation is the renewal of the baptismal vow within the heart of the confirmand). The lily is a symbol of renewed life.

Call Update Janna Hess has accepted the call to teach Kindergarten at St. Paul's. Peter Kiehl returned the call to teach 7th grade. The school board has submitted a designation to Micah Symmank (new graduate) for a non-tenured call. Please keep St. Paul's Lutheran School in your prayers.

Our New Associate Pastor We give thanks that at the seminary Call Service on May 1 it was announced that Andrew Lehenbauer has been called to be our next Associate Pastor. Andrew is from Lake Ozark, MO. Watch for more details about his arrival date in Concordia and installation at St. Paul's.

Graduation Milestone We will be celebrating with the graduates of 2019 on Sunday, May 12, in the back room of the parish office. We will have a panel of speakers that will be engaging in a dialogue about college life. Discussion will center upon life after high school involving tips on how to stay strong in your faith even after you have left home, time management skills, pitfalls to avoid, activities to be involved in, and finding your place in unfamiliar territory. The graduates will also be receiving a book entitled, "College 101: Campus Life for Christians." Please keep these graduates in your prayers as we pray for their future, praising God for the gifts that He has given to them and asking Him to help them use those talents to glorify Him.
